

CRIM-TRACK: Agenda for dissemination workshop 21 April 2017

Venue: Mykolas Romeris University (MRU), Ateities st. 20, LT-08303 Vilnius, Lithuania

21 April at 9:00-14:30: Dissemination workshop

9:00-9:30: Arrival, bread rolls, coffee and tea.

9:30-10:00: Welcome and presentation by MRU and LPFSC

10:00-11:30: Presentation of CRIM-TRACK, Sensor system for detection of criminal chemical substances:
Live demo and presentation of results by Mogens Havsteen Jakobsen and Milan Laustsen

11:30-12:30: Sandwiches, snacks and networking

12:30-14:00: Presentation of three projects and their results:

- SNOOPY, Sniffer for concealed people discovery
Presented by Giorgio Sberveglieri
- C-BORD, Effective Container Inspection at Border Control Points
Presented by Lutz Kretschmann and Krishna Persaud
- ACXIS, Automated Comparison of X-ray Images for cargo Scanning
Presented by Alexander Flisch
(App. 25 minutes each, wrap up 15 min)

14:00-14:30: Presentation by PO for CRIM-TRACK, Giulio-Maria Mancini, DG Migration and Home Affairs, Innovation and Industry for Security: "Secure Societies call and perspectives"

14:30: Official meeting adjourns (Break /coffee / tea / cake, fruit)

14:45-15:45: Closed meeting

Consortium partners: 1 representative from each partner only (except coordinator)

External experts

EC representatives

Advisory Board.

30 minutes: Feed-back from external invited experts, from Advisory Board and EC representatives to CRIM-TRACK in relation to final reporting

30 minutes: Open discussion, networking and potential future collaborations?

Spin-out? New EU proposals? Other fields/applications?